

NVRHA's Introduction to Versatility Ranch Horse 3-Day Clinic Larkspur, Colorado

April 30 thru May 2, 2010

Learn this multi-skilled event in a safe, relaxed format. Jeff & Gerrie Barnes, experienced VRH clinicians, will guide you through the classes using NVRHA rules and regulations. We'll answer your questions with plenty of time to practice in the indoor arena. During our breaks, experienced NVRHA participants will be available for conversation.

Fee = $285 per rider which includes 3-days, two instructors, cattle, your own copy of the NVRHA rules & patterns, morning feeding (you sleep in an extra hour!), and stall stripping. Bring your own food. Concessions are not available.

Outdoor Stalls = $10 per night. Bring your own hay. Stay on-site in your self-contained trailer (no electric hookups) or local lodging. See our website for travel and lodging recommendations under Location Information/Lodging – www.barnesranch.com.

No Prior Cattle Experience Needed. . . Emphasis on Safety & Education. . . Open to ALL Breeds

Day 1: Dry Work Classes (Ranch Riding, Ranch Trail, Conformation)

Day 2: Cattle Classes (Ranch Cutting, Working Ranch Horse)

Day 3: Mock Competition – Combine & practice the skills & classes

Experience the fun, excitement and education of the ranching way of life ~ provided by NVRHA

For clinic or facility questions contact Gerrie Barnes at 303-646-9855, barnesranch@hughes.net, or visit our website at www.barnesranch.com. Address: 13751 E. Cherry Creek Rd., Larkspur, CO 80118

To register: download & complete the NVRHA registration form at www.nvrha.org; make your check payable to NVRHA and send to 590 Hwy. 105, Box 150, Monument, CO 80132.

Off-site Manager is Tim Rose at 719-520-1000.